MERRY CHRISTMAS

JOKES

A worried patient was being wheeled into the operating room for involved surgery of the heart.

"Do you think I'll be all right?" he anxiously asked the nurse.

"No cause to worry", she consoled him. "Your surgeon has seen an operation exactly like yours on television."

Teacher: "This is the fifth time I've had to punish you this week. What have you to say for yourself?"

George: "I'm glad it's Friday."

Girl's Father: "Do you think you can support my daughter on $40 a week?"

Suitor: "I'm willing to try, sir if that's the best you can offer."

Daffynision: DIET: It's the penalty for exceeding the feed limit.

Customer: Have you a book called, Man-the Master of Women?

Salesman: Sorry, sir, the fiction department is on the other side of the store.

Although a vacuum cleaner is a great invention for picking up dirt, it can't compare with a telephone.

Daffynision: Coincide- what most people do when it rains.

Reporter: Do you think I should put more fire into my stories?
Editor: No. Vice Versa.

"The Christmas Spirit"

Christmas should be recognized not for the spirit of giving, but, we all should pay respect to the Christ Child who was born in a manger. The Wise men of the East followed a star which led them to the resting place of the little babe in the manger. They brought myrrh, frankincense and gifts to honor him as a great leader which had been prophesied by the prophets of old.

Today this ~~same~~ Christ Child should live in the hearts and the lives of the people. All mankind should pay respect and homage to a great Christian teacher whose teachings has brought brotherly love and friendship into the lives of all mankind in the Christian World.

Luke 2:11-22

11. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.
12. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.
13. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,
14. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.
15. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.
17. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child..
18. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.
19. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.
20. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.
21. And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.
22. And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to ore sent him to the lord.

"The Third & Fourth Grade"

In school work both grades have made free hand Christmas trees from construction paper. Arithmetic and History seems to be the most liked subjects. Science causes some wonderings to various parts of the world, but it is still Science.

As to Sports, the children enjoyed the snow and cold weather; the results were, cold feet, running noses, and scolding mothers, but no serious illnesses that I know of.

As to social relations; well it has turned into some real "Heart Throbs"--(the "Soft serious Type")-- pictures of hands displaying real diamonds from Denner's Store. I thought, "the ring was on the wrong finger but that was O.K. "Ignorance is bliss".

Hearts seem to throb in triangles at times; then one side of the triangle sighs, and retires.

But still, they don't want any advice. Oh, Well, advice probably wouldn't change things anyway.

"New bifocals, eh?"
